

Integrated energy efficiency improvements and utility supply for a major brewery

The Diageo Group is one of the most successful beverage producers in the world, with a collection of more than 200 brands that are enjoyed in over 180 countries.

The world-famous Guinness stout ranks among the best-known Diageo products and St James's Gate Brewery in Dublin is the home of Guinness. As well as producing over 6 million hectolitres (hl) of beer a year, the site houses extensive offices and the Guinness Storehouse, Ireland's most popular visitor attraction.

A strong partner to guarantee success npower Business Solutions (nBS) owns and operates the utilities infrastructure at Diageo's large scale brewery at St James's Gate. nBS supplies Diageo with energy efficient cooling, steam, compressed air, industrial gases, water, wastewater and electricity. Major investments have also been made in extending and optimising the utilities systems profiting Diageo with long term guaranteed energy savings and improved reliability.
